Dear Posse Nominee:

Congratulations on your nomination for the Posse Scholarship. If you're reading this, you've just completed your first-round interview. You were nominated for a reason, and we're so glad to have met you in person.

Now that you know more about Posse, it's going to be important for you to familiarize yourself with Posse's partner colleges and universities so you can narrow down which schools you'd like to be considered for. If you advance to the next round as a semi-finalist, we're going to ask you to let us know your top choice colleges or universities.

This booklet presents a brief profile of each Posse partner school. We hope you get excited about them; they are among the very best institutions of higher education in the United States. Take a look, but also research these schools further on your own.

Good luck and we'll be in touch soon,
Posse

CONCEPT

Posse started in 1989 because of one student who said,

“I NEVER WOULD HAVE DROPPED OUT OF COLLEGE IF I HAD MY POSSE WITH ME.”

The Posse Foundation identifies public high school students with extraordinary academic and leadership potential who may be overlooked by traditional college selection processes. The Foundation extends to these students the opportunity to pursue personal and academic excellence by placing them in supportive, multicultural teams—Posses—of 10 students. The Foundation’s partner colleges and universities award Posse Scholars full-tuition leadership scholarships.

THREE GOALS

1. To expand the pool from which top colleges and universities can recruit outstanding young leaders from diverse backgrounds.
2. To help these institutions build more interactive campus environments so they can become more welcoming for people from all backgrounds.
3. To ensure that Posse Scholars persist in their academic studies and graduate so they can take on leadership positions in the workforce.

CLOSEST CITIES: Minneapolis + St. Paul, Minnesota

UNDERGRADUATE POPULATION: 3,000

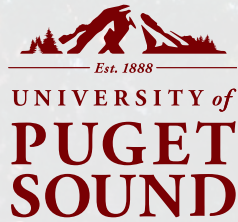

WEBSITE: www.stolaf.edu

With so many great liberal arts colleges, how do you choose? What makes St. Olaf stand apart? We think it's this: St. Olaf doesn't produce ordinary college grads. It turns out Oles (Oh-Lees). Oles are the people that companies want, because they know how to get stuff done. They think harder, approach problems differently, persevere with enthusiasm. Oles are born of St. Olaf's intense academic program—an academic program that hones minds, while its emphasis on global engagement helps broaden perspectives. Oles aren't necessarily religious, but our religious tradition encourages deep self-reflection. Most important, perhaps, is the Ole community—a vibrant community that accepts, supports and encourages, generating lifelong friendships and invaluable business connections. Today more than ever, the world needs idealistic, tireless problem solvers. In other words, Oles.

QUICK FACTS

- » St. Olaf's 3,000 students come from 80 countries, every state and a variety of religious and non-religious backgrounds.
- » Oles choose from more than 85 majors, concentrations and pre-professional tracks.
- » Ninety-five percent of Oles live on campus or in college-owned houses nearby.
- » Two-thirds of Oles study abroad.
- » Oles participate on 27 varsity teams, numerous club sports and intramurals. They belong to 200 student organizations and have countless opportunities to get involved.

LOCATION: Tacoma, Washington

CLOSEST CITY: Seattle, Washington

UNDERGRADUATE POPULATION: 2,600

WEBSITE: www.pugetsound.edu

Puget Sound is a community of 2,600 individuals working hard toward unique goals while engaging the world around them. We believe a Puget Sound education isn't something you get; it's something you do. Students major in interdisciplinary fields, take part in our renowned School of Music and innovative Business Leadership Program, travel abroad, pursue internships, start companies, and do community service. Others conduct research in waterways, mountains, national parks, and science labs. Professors know students personally and often collaborate with them on research. Graduates go on to law and medical schools, win fellowships, and pursue nearly every career path imaginable.

QUICK FACTS

- » Located in the entrepreneurial city of Tacoma, Washington, population 200,000, 35 miles south of Seattle, with easy access to Portland, Oregon, and Vancouver, British Columbia.
- » Many Puget Sound students do community service in Tacoma, including working with food banks, homeless shelters and local businesses.
- » Students get outside the classroom to engage in experiential learning opportunities ranging from wildlife habitat restoration to developing policy recommendations for local government.
- » Puget Sound offers 50 traditional and interdisciplinary areas of study and more than 100 study abroad opportunities in 55 countries.
- » Students come to Puget Sound from 47 states and 12 countries; 78 percent come from outside Washington State.
