POSSE VETERANS PROGRAM

Posse started in 1989 because of one student who said,
“I NEVER WOULD HAVE DROPPED OUT OF COLLEGE IF I’D HAD MY POSSE WITH ME.”

That simple idea of sending a group (a posse) of students together to college became the basis for one of the most important college success and leadership development programs in the nation today. Posse’s ultimate goal is to develop a diverse, national network of outstanding men and women who can take on significant leadership positions in every industry and better represent the voices of all Americans.

The Posse Foundation announced its Veterans initiative in 2012. Since then, the list of institutional partners has grown to include Case Western Reserve University, Texas A&M University and the University of Virginia.

POSSE VETERANS PROGRAM

The Posse Veterans Program identifies and supports post-9/11 veterans of the U.S. Armed Forces who have tremendous leadership and academic potential. Posse looks for veterans interested in pursuing bachelor's degrees at top colleges and universities who are excited to be active, engaged leaders in those campus communities. By creating cohorts of veterans, preparing them for the college experience, and supporting them through graduation, the Posse Veterans Program ensures veterans' success in college and, ultimately, in the workforce.

PROGRAM COMPONENTS

Candidates for the program participate in Posse's Dynamic Assessment Process (DAP), a unique three-stage interview process that identifies talented veterans who can succeed at Posse's top-ranked college and university partners. Finalists are asked to attend a group interview and meet representatives from the participating college or university. Winners will attend a top-tier, four-year college or university as part of a team, a Posse, of 10 veterans.

Prior to matriculation, the Veterans Posse Scholars participate in an all-inclusive, one-month, pre-collegiate training program in New York City focused on leadership development, academic excellence and team building.

Once on campus, the veterans participate in and help organize an annual PossePlus Retreat, which occurs during the spring semester and involves up to 100 students from the general student body. The retreat focuses on a social or political topic of national interest and importance and is facilitated by Posse staff. In addition, Veterans Posse Scholars meet weekly with a faculty mentor for the first two years as a group as well as individually every other week. The program continues to provide support through graduation.

THE SCHOLARSHIP

After applying GI Bill, Yellow Ribbon, and other available funding from the government, Posse's partner institutions guarantee that full tuition is covered for all four years—even when the government funding runs out. Posse's partner institutions' generous financial aid policies provide excellent packages, based on financial need, that help cover the costs of room, board and other college or university fees.

CAREER DEVELOPMENT SUPPORT

In addition to the programming mentioned above, The Posse Foundation's Career Program provides support throughout college, including help with building resumes and developing interviewing skills. Scholars will be exposed to professionals in various industries and participate in events and other opportunities to help them build their knowledge of possible career paths and their own networks.

A young couple is shown in formal attire, likely at a wedding. The woman on the left has dark, wavy hair and is wearing a black dress. The man on the right has short brown hair and is wearing a blue suit jacket, a striped shirt, and a red tie. They are both looking towards the right. In the background, other guests are visible, including a man with glasses and a mustache. The scene is dimly lit, suggesting an indoor evening event.

ELIGIBILITY

The Posse Foundation is looking for veterans who:

- » Are leaders in their places of work, communities and/or families.
- » Demonstrate strong academic potential.
- » Are excited about the opportunity to participate in a four-year program leading to a bachelor's degree from a prestigious institution of higher education.
- » Have not previously received a bachelor's degree.
- » Have served at least 90 days of active duty since September 11, 2001, and have or will receive an honorable discharge.
- » Can participate in a one-month, pre-collegiate training program during the summer prior to matriculation.

Applicants who have taken the SAT or ACT may report previous scores, and we encourage applicants to take either test. However, scores are not a determining factor in Posse's selection process.
